A most interesting service at the Baptist Church last night. A packed house greeted Brother Penn, who was at his best. It was a great blessing to those of us who heard him during our gracious revival to sit again under the Gospel so forcibly and tenderly preached by him who has done so much good in our city. The Lord gave us one happy convert last night. Praise His holy name. W. A. McCOMB, Pastor.

Ellis Chandlee, late of Hot Springs, Ark., has opened a studio in the rooms formerly occupied by A. A. Barker, at the Footbridge. Mr. Chandlee is a former resident of Eureka Springs, and is known to many of our people as an artist of splendid merit. His work certainly attests his ability, and he shows some specimens of the latest and most artistic styles in photography.

It is argued against woman's suffrage that she would never do for a juror. She is too active in her sympathies to render unbiased judgment according to the law; she is too prone to decide a question according to her own code of deducting logical conclusions by processes of calm and dispassionate reasoning. She would either hang or acquit, for she knows no middle road. This is the opinion of a woman. And this woman might have added that if her sister happened to dislike a prisoner at the bar no array of evidence and no amount of argument would prevent her from rendering a verdict according to her feelings. Especially would this be so if the defendant was a woman, too.

School Election.

The election for school directors last Saturday passed off quietly, although a good deal of interest was manifested. After the polls were opened a rumor gained circulation that an attempt would be made to defeat the 5 mill tax. This brought out a number of citizens who went to work to prevent the attempt from succeeding. The report was false, and out of 216 votes cast, only thirteen were against the tax. Below we publish THE VOTE.

A new method of mining, milling, roasting and smelting different kinds of ores has been successfully demonstrated in Germany, and is now being introduced with unprecedented success. The slow and cumbersome methods heretofore employed will be discarded, and the cost of various ores in treatment or conversion into metal, especially Lead, Zinc and Silver Ores, Nickel, Cobalt and Copper, greatly reduced. All the matte of the latter, which was heretofore sent to Germany, is now being refined in the United States. The HARTSFELD GERMAN MINING SYNDICATE, of Newport, Ky., invites correspondence. See their advertisement.

THE Senate tariff bribery investigation will begin tomorrow behind closed doors.

ACCORDING to advices received at Washington another insurrection in Cuba is eminent.

SERIOUS trouble is threatened between the Owens and Breckinridge forces in Kentucky.

POPULISM is but an aggravated form of Republicanism, Coxeyism is a result of fusion, while anarchy is sure to come in the general wind up.—Helena World.

ENGLAND is just now greatly interested in the coal mine troubles in this country, as the large orders being received abroad tended to adjust the colliery troubles in Great Britain.

THE early exodus of New York millionaires to Europe gave rise to a silly story in Wall Street to the effect that American capitalists were withdrawing investments and would reinvest them abroad.

IT is reported that in the executive session of the Senate last Friday the nomination of C. H. J. Taylor to be Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia lacked but one vote of being favorably acted upon.

GEN. COXEY has moved again to what is considered a better show ground. His force changes now from day to day, the recruits taking the place of deserters. He can no longer advertise "the original company," but he can claim to have "fresh attractions daily."—Philadelphia Ledger.

If the tariff bill was to pass, and we use the preposition "if" in a doubting sense, then the newspapers would be out of very much of anything to write about, and the members of Congress would be entirely out of anything to talk about. "It is an ill wind that blows nobody good."—Washington Telegraph.

ELEVEN counties only have so far voted on the Senatorial question. Nine instructed for Berry and two for Fishback. Giving Berry all the counties he has (two of which have heretofore sent up Populists, however,) he has fourteen votes, while Fishback has six instructed and two uninstructed who took the stump for him and were nominated. He has also, it is understood, eight of the hold-over Senators, making sixteen.—Arkansas Press.

We were in very severe hopes that after Dick Bland got his silver plank in the Missouri platform he would kind 'o subside, and that the country would be given a bit of a breathing spell, but some papers actually speak of him as being the proper man to head the ticket in '96. Good Lord, deliver us! The trouble with Dick is that ever since he has been in politics he has only had one purpose in view—to get a silver bill passed. But perhaps it would be well enough to "talk him up" and change his mind from a silver bill to the Presidency. It might help him somewhat, and if he does not receive the nomination the country will not be hurt.

“United We Stand, Divided We Fall.”

Nashville American.

The Democratic masses should now, if ever, feel that “United we stand, divided we fall.” Unfortunate conditions have rendered it absolutely essential for Democrats to stand shoulder to shoulder in the campaign this year. The pole star should be measures and principles and not men. If the Democratic hosts cannot unite upon principle the outlook is indeed a gloomy one. Every thought upon the subject should be cast aside except that of standing to the plain declarations of the party in its platform and upon the hustings. The Democratic masses require no schooling and no arguments, and there should be no difference as to what Democratic doctrines are. The instincts of the great body of the people in favor of liberty, financial independence and general prosperity for the masses is alone a sufficient guide to the formulation of Democratic tenets.

In the present disturbed business and political state of the country it would be suicidal for Democrats to turn away from the straight line of party principle. Debate as to what are Democratic principles is nonsense. They are as plain as the noonday sun. Those who cannot see them do not want to see them. Whatever indifference, capriciousness or weakness have grown up in the Democratic ranks since the grand victory of November, 1892, should quickly vanish in the face of the reverses which the party has lately met. Our only salvation is in unity. Those who are now endeavoring to sow discord in the Democratic ranks are not loyal to the Democratic party, and should not be for a moment heeded.

Let all who are Democrats in spirit and not merely in name, unite in the closest bonds of political fellowship for the ensuing campaign. In that is our only anchor of hope and safety. Division now in the party fold means nothing but absolute disaster.

A general Republican victory this fall, while it would not necessarily mean a triumph for that party in '96, would tend strongly to that result, which, if accomplished, would mean a turning back of the political clock of the country for over a quarter of a century. The desperate effort made to enact a sweeping force bill under the Harrison administration, and which failed of success by but a hair's breadth, is an impressive object lesson for the eyes of the Democratic masses to be fixed upon in considering the subject of loyalty to party. We must be united or we are defeated from the outset. United Democracy can easily dominate the Nation, but dissension can but result as it did in 1860, when the Democratic party, possessing a large majority of the popular vote, was trampled under foot by the minority—the Republican party—and so the bloody tide of civil war was inaugurated. While civil war would not be invited by such an outcome now, the pernicious results of Republican party supremacy would be felt by the Democratic masses with the deepest humiliation, and business and financial gloom over the country would be crystallized.

Let every true Democrat bear constantly in mind that “united we stand, divided we fall.”

GOOD THOUGHTS.

From the Ram's Horn.

In most cases the man who has riches has a master.

The man who will deliberately tell a lie will live one.

SPRINGS.

In order to give our readers some idea about the number of springs and their location, we give below a partial list only, as space forbids a full list. We also give the analysis of the Basin Spring.

The Basin. The first spring discovered, and which derives its name from the basin-shaped cavity in the rock from which the water was formerly dipped, but is now enclosed in masonry, and can be seen about ten feet below the present grade. It is located in the central part of the city, near the junction of Spring and Main streets. It is the most popular spring in the city. If you want to find a resident or visiting friend in the city, go in the evening to the Basin, you are sure to find him.

The Sweet. on Spring street between Hilton and Webb streets and on the north end of foot bridge.

The Harding is situated on Spring street, near Howell street south of German alley.

The Crescent is on Spring street below the Crescent Hotel, and opposite the Presbyterian Church.

The Grotto is in the northern part of the city.

The Dairy is situated at the point where Fuller street crosses the line of section 10 and where the Inter-state Summer Normal and Educational Assembly building is now erected.

EUREKA SPRINGS

The Gem of the Ozark Mountains.

SOME REASONS WHY IT IS THE BEST HEALTH RE-
SORT IN AMERICA.

Differences that Exist Between Eureka Springs and Hot Springs as to Climate,
Altitude, Etc.

American Climates and Resorts.

Eureka Springs is so often confounded in the minds of physicians and others with that other noted health resort, the Hot Springs of Arkansas, that I will first state what many do not seem to realize, that they are not only two distinct and separate resorts, but are places of such distinct characteristics that an intimate knowledge of these differences is important to the physician who would intelligently direct the selection of a resort for his patient.

This confusion of the two places has arisen from the fact that both are in Arkansas, both are in the Ozark mountains, and the main feature of both is springs of wonderful qualities, but here the resemblance except in the topography of the region ends. The waters of the one, as the name indicates, are hot, while those of Eureka Springs are cold. Hot Springs is in south western Arkansas, while Eureka Springs is in the extreme northwest corner of the State, 180 miles distant as the crow flies. Hot Springs is among the foot hills of the Ozark mountains with an altitude of 610 feet, while Eureka Springs is on the crest of the same range of mountains with an altitude of 2,000 feet. Hot Springs has an annual precipitation of 72.28 inches (average for three years) while that of Eureka Springs is 32.79 inches.
The mean annual temperature of Hot Springs is 61.36 degrees, of Eureka Springs 58.93 degrees. The winter mean of Hot Springs 51.77 degrees, of Eureka Springs 42.08 degrees. The summer mean at Hot Springs is 81.57 degrees, of Eureka Springs 74.79 degrees. The average number of clear days at Hot Springs is 162, at Eureka Springs 209. Fair days at Hot Springs 70, at Eureka Springs 90. Cloudy days at Hot Springs 133, at Eureka Springs 66. The death rate per 1,000 population at Eureka Springs 10.33. Thus the meteorological records show that a marked difference exists between the two places in those characteristics which go to make up that totality we call climate.

The altitude of Eureka Springs is sufficient to entitle it to consideration as a medium altitude resort for those affected with bronchial or pulmonary troubles, and while the precipitation is greater than is considered the most favorable limit for that class of patients, on the other hand the conformation and geological conditions of the place are such that all surplus moisture is at once and rapidly carried away and so the relative humidity is brought down to 59.4, while that of Jacksonville, Fla., is 77, of Los Angeles, Cal., 66, Asheville, N. C., 70.10, Thomasville, Ga., 64, that of Eureka Springs being an appreciable per cent below that of places known most favorably as resorts for consumptives.
In addition to the meteorological conditions as indicated by the statistics given above, Eureka Springs is surrounded for many miles on all sides by virgin pine forests, so that the breezes which sweep over it are more or less impregnated with the balsamic qualities of such a region. But experience, the best test, has proven this to be a favorable resort for the class of cases known as catarrhal consumption.

From the above, the intelligent physician will be able to judge of the availability of the climate for his patient, but of the peculiar and apparently wonderful effects of the waters here found in such abundance, no statistics can be brought to bear upon the truth of the statements which may be made. Therefore I shall be as conservative as possible in stating what I conceive to be thoroughly established facts regarding the class of diseases benefitted. In the first place let me impress upon the reader's mind that the Eureka Springs waters are not mineral waters, or as called by Dr.
Chas. E. Davis in his able paper at the Medico-Climatological Congress—"spoiled waters", but they come about as near, as will be seen from a study of the analysis, to being pure oxide of hydrogen as is found anywhere.

It is undoubtedly due to the fact that these waters are possessed of the almost perfect solvent power of pure oxide of hydrogen that they have in cases, the facts of which are too well authenticated to admit of reasonable doubt, apparently dissolved out of the system, those foreign substances which seemed to threaten the integrity of vital organs, and the lives of many sufferers from rheumatism, gout, eczema, Bright's disease, chronic material poisoning and scrofula. There are original testimonials in possession of physicians of unquestionable skill and standing, which, incredible as it must seem to the conservative profession, establish the fact that either well established cancer has been cured here by the waters, or that reputable physicians have been repeatedly mistaken in their diagnosis.

But it is probably in the direction of diseases affecting the kidneys and bladder that the most remarkable and permanent results are obtained, and in those diseases in which a general alterative or solvent effect is desired.
Eureka Springs is a unique as well as interesting place. It is essentially and only a health resort. It offers but scant encouragement for the laborer, or business man unless he must seek relief from disease, as it is not in any sense a manufacturing, and only to a very limited degree an agricultural town, though fruit of all kinds common to the temperate zone grows luxuriantly, and there are good claims for fruit and vegetable farming open to homestead entry within a very few miles of Eureka Springs. Its population (about 5,000) consists largely of those who have gone there "for their health," though many have regained it and evidently "are not there for their health," now having entered into various lines of business and professions. This growth has been the outcome of the inherent virtues of the climate and waters in restoring the sick to health, and not from booming or extensive advertising, for the truth is that the place is but little known among the medical profession as yet.

There are accommodations of every grade. The beautiful and home-like Crescent hotel, constructed entirely of native stone and nearly fireproof which occupies a most commanding position, gives those desiring the best accommodation all the room and attention they want. This hotel is said by those who have enjoyed its hospitality to come nearest to the ideal home of any resort hotel in America.
My authority for this is a retired physician of the old school (in a social sense) now spending, as is his custom every year of late, his winter months here. This gentleman has traveled extensively in this country, and visited all the famous watering places of Europe, and says he knows of no hotel where everything is so home-like, and where there is so little of the air of the health resort as at the Crescent hotel.
The grand elegance of the fire-place and rotunda shown in our illustration is a true index of the entire building from basement to observation turret on the roof.

Then for those with smaller purses, but desirous of a first-class house, the Southern hotel, a commercial as well as tourist hotel, offers accommodations good enough for any one, except those who want to pay for better.

What has been said of the Southern can with propriety and truth be said of a number of other smaller hotels, as the Chautauqua and Piedmont. Beside these, there are innumerable boarding houses, large and small, till you get down to $4 per week for room and board.

I will not tire the reader by attempting to describe the place, but let you rest your eye and mind by looking at the pictures, which much more faithfully describe the topography and general characteristics of the place than I can possibly do. I will only call attention to the fact, which will undoubtedly at once occur to the reader, that the conditions for perfect natural drainage could not be improved upon, and as the town nearly all lies on the north and west side of the valley, the exposure is south and east, consequently sunny and warm in winter and shady and cool in summer.

As to the winters, I experienced a fair average winter season, being there during the exceptionally cold snap of November 30th and up to December 8th, when the mercury went exceptionally low all over the West, North and South. On the morning of December 3rd, the thermometer registered 14 degrees above zero and there was about two inches of snow, but by 10 a. m. the bright sun was making slush of it rapidly and by noon of the 4th it was entirely gone. The winters are not severe at any time and are practically over early in February.

The solid and gaseous elements contained in these springs can be compared with other popular springs, by referring to the following table:

	SOLIDS, GRS.	GASSES, CUBIC IN.
Eureka Springs, Ark.	5.85	28.62
Orkney Springs, Va.	10.128
Berkley Springs, W. Va.	10.888
Birchdale Springs, N. H.	4.76
Clarendon Springs, Vt.	5.76	6.97
Jordan Alum Springs, Va.	6.196	1.97
Hot Springs, Ark.	8.852

These waters contain mainly car-bonates of lime and magnesia, with small amounts of sulphates, chlorides and alkalis. They are too weak to warrant complete quantitative analysis, they differ but slightly from one another, and the results here given are sufficiently explicit for all practical purposes. Examined by F. W.

Clarke and R. B. Rizza, and reported February 15, 1887.

For the invalid who is able to enjoy and is fond of sports, the country about Eureka Springs leaves little to be desired, having been endowed by nature in a most lavish manner making for the sportsman a paradise. Deer are found in abundance in the woods in the immediate vicinity, also wild turkey, squirrels, rabbits and quail, while ducks abound in season on the waters of White and Kings Rivers, two beautiful streams abounding in fish, six and four miles distant respectively.

Life at Eureka Springs may be quiet and plain, spent in camping, in living in the many comfortable cottages to be obtained at reasonable rates, or as above indicated, it may partake of the elements of pleasure usually attending a fashionable resort. But of course the principal occupation of the day consists of drinking the water from the various springs, which differ slightly in analysis, and it is claimed by many invalids that decided differences are experienced in the effects. The statement was made by one of the local physicians, an intelligent observer I should judge, that after a number of years' residence and constant using of these waters, he thought the effect was detrimental to the most robust health, his theory being that the system gradually deteriorated under the prolonged deprivation of the mineral and chemical ingredients found in average drinking waters, unless artificially supplied by means of attention to diet with this in view. Eureka Springs has a number of very intelligent physicians of all schools of medicine, most of them there for their own health, who have made an intelligent study of the therapeutic applications of the waters, and are prepared to give intelligent advice to the profession at large, but it has not as yet a horde of unprincipled quacks such as have brought opprobrium upon some health resorts of great virtue if protected from these human ghoul.

In conclusion, I can say to the members of the American Health Resort Association, the medical profession in general, and to the invalid public of the class mentioned that as a health resort, I believe Eureka Springs is destined to take a most prominent place. I have spoken only of what actually is at present, but in addition will mention that a very extensive sanitarium project is fairly under way which when completed will furnish the most extensive and complete accommodations of that class of any resort in the South, equalled by few if any, and excelled by none in the North. This institution will not be completed before another year. Eureka Springs is reached from Chicago over any of the numerous lines to St.
Louis, but the invalid can make no mistake in taking the smooth road bed and luxurious equipment of the Chicago & Alton. From St. Louis the direct line is the St. Louis & San Francisco, familiarly known as the "Frisco," which runs through sleepers to Eureka Springs. From Kansas City, either the Missouri Pacific will bring you to Carthage, or by the K. C.
Ft. S. & M. to Nichols Junction, where connection is made with the "Frisco line." From Kansas, Indian Territory and Territory and Texas, the "Frisco line" is the direct route.

Grammar School Commencement.

The first Grammar School Commencement in the history of our schools, and, for aught we know, in the schools of Arkansas, was held at the Eureka Springs opera house on Saturday evening, May 19th.

Twenty-six graduates from the seven years' public school course marched into the opera house at 8 o'clock p. m., and were seated on the beautifully decorated stage.

Earl Newport, the salutatorian, welcomed our people to the first Grammar School Commencement. Miss Amy Squier told in beautiful sentences the mission of the Brownies.

Lawrence Morehouse, with the "Sword of Atala" for a subject, made one of the most impressive speeches of the evening.

Miss Cora York spoke on "Whittier's Sweetheart," and hers was one of the best speeches of the occasion.

Miss Lillian Brown held the audience perfectly while she told of "The Spider in Fable and History."

"The Voyage of Viking" was the theme of Miss Dena Thorsell, and it was well presented.

Miss Mortie Reynolds, who is one of the brightest girls in the class, gave a very interesting picture from the imagination on the subject, "An Interesting Relic at the World's Fair—A Quilt the work of Mary, Queen of Scots."

Mr. and Mrs. York, who are always ready to assist in any good work, delighted the audience with music on the guitar and mandolin.

Olin James' subject was "Uncle Sam's Neglected Opportunities." Olin received many compliments on his self-possession and excellent delivery.

Misses Daisy Barfield and Mamie Squier, two of our home girls, who are making their mark in music, rendered an instrumental duet that pleased the large audience.

Miss Clara Whiting's subject, "Pictures in Literature," was one of the gems of the commencement. Clara has a beautiful voice, and was perfectly at ease. She justly deserves the many compliments bestowed by friends and admirers.

Miss Nora Poynter was the class poet, and her effort reflects great credit upon one so young. It was listened to with that attention which showed how much it was appreciated.

Miss Katie Rippetoe's prophecy was a happy selection of imaginative pictures of her classmates. She rendered it as perfectly as we have ever heard anything delivered.

Miss Carrie Sayles, who has on all occasions helped us in entertainments, favored the audience with a solo. Miss Carrie is an excellent teacher of vocal music, and we wish her success.

Miss Crystal Davis, the valedictorian of the class, traced the Mayflower across the stormy Atlantic to the famous Plymouth Rock, and beautifully compared the voyage of her classmates with that of the Pilgrim Fathers. Crystal is a good speaker, and her effort was one of the best.

Rev. E. L. Massey, in eloquent words, presented the diplomas. Rev. Massey is a native of Arkansas, and it seemed to stir his feelings as we have never seen them before as he presented the testimonials from those in authority. We have never heard Mr. Massey speak better than on this occasion.

Rev. W. A. McComb, of the Baptist Church, pronounced the invocation and Rev. Dr. James the benediction.

NOTES.

Miss Margaret Millsaps, principal of the Grammar School, should be proud of this year's work. Our people hope that Miss Millsaps will conclude to return to her work in our schools the coming year.

The class poem should be published. Many of our people would like to see it in print.

A copy of the class prophecy would be appreciated by all who heard it.

Let us hope that the Grammar School graduates will all enter the High School the coming year.

Broken Down by Kidney Trouble and Gravel

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Dear Sirs: I wish to make a statement in regard to my case. In January, 1890, I was taken down with pains in my back and kidney trouble, and at the same time became afflicted with gravel. For five months I was not out of my house, and for months was unable to stand alone. I was attended by three of the best physicians of North Arkansas, but they gave only temporary relief. The following two years and a half nearly all the sleep I got was in a chair, as lying in bed would cause me

Much Pain and Misery. I had tried many different medicines besides the doctors' treatment, but I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. After using three bottles I got so that I am now able to lie in bed and sleep most of the night. It has benefited me greatly, and I am stouter than I have been for the past three years. I have worked very hard all my life, and had become now in my sixty-ninth year I feel much better, and it is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I can truthfully say to the afflicted Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine." J. B. HASTINGS, Postmaster, Wolf Bayou, Arkansas.

Brownell, or his assigns, for the use and benefit of the legal holders of any of said bonds, which may have been heretofore, or shall hereafter be issued by said Board of Improvement of Water Districts three (3), four (4) and five (5), as consolidated, pursuant to the terms of said contract with the said Ralph E. Brownell, for the construction of said works and the laying of the pipes and mains, etc.

SEC. 2. That authority be and is hereby given to said Ralph E. Brownell, and his assigns, on behalf of and for the use of the legal holders of said bonds, or any of them, in the event that default be made in the payment of any of said bonds, or the interest accruing thereon, from time to time, either by themselves or a receiver appointed by some court of competent jurisdiction, to take full and complete possession and control of said water works system and all water mains and pipes in said city and thereafter receive and collect all revenues, tolls, rentals and income derived from the operation of said water works in said city, and apply the net income derived therefrom after paying all the necessary operating expenses and repairs, to the payment of the said bonds and to the interest accruing thereon, which may be in default. And for that purpose authority is hereby given to the said Ralph E. Brownell, or his assigns or any receiver, appointed as herein provided, in the event he or they shall take possession of said water works for the non-payment of any of said bonds, or interest, to use and occupy the streets, alleys and public places in said city, for the purpose of carrying on said water works, and also to charge, collect and receive reasonable charges, rentals and tolls, for the furnishing water to said city and its citizens, and the net income derived therefrom after paying necessary operating expenses and repairs, shall be applied in payment of any of said bonds, which may be due, and the interest in default on any of said bonds until the same are fully paid and discharged.

Provided, however, That in case of a difference between the city council and the receiver, herein mentioned, as to the rates to be charged for furnishing said water to the city or its citizens, the same shall be fixed by the court appointing said receiver.
