The Fortnightly Banquet.

There is no sense in which the word feast has been understood that could not have been applied to the annual banquet, which the Fortnightly gave at the Thach Cottage last Saturday evening.

The exercises began with a musical number from two of our most gifted members, Misses Jennette Hayes and Crystal rendered in true Portunian style.

The usual order of exercises—the reading of the minutes with quotations—was pursued, and then one of our invited guests, Miss Katharyn Rippetoe, favored the society with a vocal solo. Miss Rippetoe always pleases when she sings and she always sings.

The march to the banquet hall was led by Mr. James Marrow of the reception committee. Standing, the society and its invited guests were led in an appropriate prayer by Rev. Dr. James, after which the attention of all was directed to the enjoyment of the several courses of good things served by Mr. and Mrs. Waddill of the Thach.

As much as this part of the feast was enjoyed, the members of the Fortnightly know something of spreading an after course that would please the most fastidious.

The jovial toastmaster, Mr. Christian, after expressing great joy at being able to be there and have with us so many of our friends, read the subject of the first toast, "Our Past," by the president, Mrs. Chas. E. Davis. Mrs. Davis gave the history of the organization, paying beautiful tributes to Mr. C. S. Brownell, our first president, and Mr. J. Fernie, whom we all remember so kindly. Mrs. Davis' toast showed that the members of the Fortnightly had been fortunate in having so able a president.

Dr. M. R. Regan replied to the toast, "Our Future." He dwelt upon the influence of the organization, and predicted a career of still greater usefulness.

Dr. Chas. E. Davis' toast, "Science, Literature, Music," was one of the very best of the evening, in fact, the society has never listened to anything better from the Doctor.

The Male Quartet, though not on the program, enriched it with several numbers that were happy selections. We have not heard the Quartet for so long a time that we were overjoyed at what seemed to us the remarkable harmony which their long association and practice has brought about.

Miss Laura Norris' toast, "Condiments," was one of the most pleasing we have ever heard. In the language of the toastmaster, "It showed what the Fortnightly can do."

Mr. James Marrow's toast, "To the Twentieth Century Woman," was a severe arraignment of the helpless woman of the past, and a bright picture of the ideal woman of the future.

Miss Foote's toast, "The Twentieth Century Man," was full of deep thought and fulfilled the expectations of her friends.

Prof. Barnett's toast, "Days," was presented as a series of memory pictures dear to us all of the days of which the great poets have sung.

Dr. Sprague's toast, "Resolutions," was as he said, an appropriate one for the occasion, and he presented some good thoughts.

Mrs. Christian was the last of the members of the Fortnightly to respond to a toast. We all expected something good from Mrs. Christian and we were not disappointed. "Gifts" was the subject, and it was admirably treated, special emphasis being laid upon the sharing what we have with those who are in need.

Mrs. Heath represented the guests with the toast, "Our Visitors." In well selected thoughts she told of her love for our water and the kindly treatment she had received from our people. We felt it was good to have such visitors as Mrs. Heath with us.

Our toastmaster, after having enjoyed himself in various ways and after having furnished a large part of the good cheer for others, proposed that we sing "Auld Lang Syne" and adjourn. The proposition was accepted, and, with innumerable memories of a most pleasant occasion, the members and their friends departed, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Heath for the evening so enjoyable.

The Reception.

One of the most exquisite, as well as dainty affairs of the season was the reception given on last Thursday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. West, in honor of their niece, Miss West, of Belleville, Ills.

Being ushered into the spacious parlors, there we found, seated in a cosy corner, Miss West and her aunt, Mrs. West, who introduced to all this pleasing young lady.

Social conversation followed for a short time and then we were entertained by our many musical friends, Misses Hayes, Davis, Calender, Brown and Rainwater.

Miss Lucy Clark rendered "The Dinner Party," from Bird's Christmas Carol, in a manner which delighted all.

Misses Way and Ruth West's clear, sweet voices were heard in the singing of one of our most familiar songs.

We were all thinking how good it was to be there when our hostess invited us out to supper, where was spread viands that would suit the taste of even the most delicate. The table was beautifully attired in rich linen and decorated with the choicest food. At the plate of each guest was laid a bouquet of the rarest cut flowers. For me to tell you how we all enjoyed this would be impossible, but I can say we have entered the dining-room and seen the sweet girls gathered about the table, you would have known that all were having an enjoyable time.

At a late hour all left, believing Mrs. West the most pleasant lady in her home they had ever met and wishing that Miss West could only be induced to remain with us.

The young ladies in attendance were Misses Obenshain, Britts, Hawley, Hays, Barnett, Sharon, Rainwater, Glender, Davis, Norris, Squier, Field, Brown, Jordan, Clark and Godloe. M.

Waking to School

"My little girl was puny and pale. She suffered from loss of appetite and stomach trouble and her feet were so sore she could hardly walk. I began giving her Hodi's Sarsaparilla and in a short time her appetite was restored and she was able to walk to school."—Mrs. M. J. Immons, Forney, Tex.

Eureka Springs was honored by a visit from a number of the members of the Frisco railroad's party, who are on a tour of inspection of the line. In the party were Mr. H. H. Higgs, Boston; Geo. H. Higgins, New York; Sidney Van Dusen, Pittsburg; J. M. Gillich, Chicago; W. A. Tuley, Texas; and F. J. Diecke, St. Louis.

These gentlemen represent the Frisco at these different points, and Eureka Springs will receive help from them now that they have seen our city. The party were entertained at the Southern and the Chautauqua hotels, and J. W. Hill, Jr. C. E. Davis and Geo. West escorted them to various points of interest about the city. The gentlemen expressed themselves as delighted with their visit and the welcome accorded them, which they stated was greater than they had received anywhere on the line.

Mrs. M. J. Ford, Ruddell's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and was finally cured by using DeWitt's Little Early Riser, the famous little pills for all stomach and liver troubles. Porch & Crok.

To Cure Nervous Dyspepsia.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of An Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicine and spring remedies; the real seat of the mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspepsia often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Sharper of No. 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medicine Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years; have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result.

My relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all these obstacles, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better and am better in every way. The above is written not written for notoriety, but is based on actual fact."

Respectfully yours,

A. W. SHARPER,

61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

West, on North Spring Street. They are delighted with Eureka Springs and her people. The young ladies are not only affable and pleasant, but are fine singers and greatly pleased all who heard them. They added greatly to the services at the First Baptist Church yesterday by their singing—Miss West with a solo in the morning, and Misses Way and Ruth rendered a beautiful duet at the evening service. Miss West will only be at home a few days, and will then go to Pennsylvania for a visit. Remember, young ladies, a cordial reception will be given you should you visit our city again.
