MAY BE A LINK OF TRUNK LINE

Contract For Extension of Mo. & N. A.
Railway Has Been Let-It Looks Like Through Line to the Gulf Coast.

The meeting of the stockholders of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railway held in Eureka Springs Saturday was one of the most important railway meetings held in several months. One action of the board of directors in acquiring all the franchises and rights of the St. Louis and Southeastern Railway, which was chartered to run from Leslie to Little Rock, was ratified.

Some time ago, the stockholders authorized the purchase of the St. L. and South Eastern, and at a meeting of the latter company held in Little Rock, last week, the terms were agreed upon.

At the meeting of the directors the following were present: Geo. L. Sands, Harry Scullin and Chas. Gilbert, St. Louis; G. J. Crump, Harrison, Arkansas; J. W. Freeman, Berryville, Arkansas; W. B. Smith, attorney, Little Rock; and Chief Engineer, W. S. Dawsley. The latter has filed maps of the extension from Seligman to Joplin, and also from Pangburn to Helena.

The acquired charter of the St. L. & S. E., covers the line from Leslie to Pangburn, and action was taken to amend the franchises of the Missouri and North Arkansas, to include the additional line to Helena. The stockholders voted to increase the capital stock two and a half million dollars.

The Allegheny Improvement Co. has contracts to build and equip all extensions. They have let the contract for seventy-five miles from Leslie to Pangburn, to Burke and Joseph.

The original charter of the South Eastern to enter Little Rock requiring ten miles to be built on or before July, 1908.

According to the Kansas City men, who have made the matter of this through line from that city to New Orleans a study, the theory they advance, which they claim is well founded, is that the outlet from Kansas City to Joplin is to be over the Kansas City Southern. From Joplin to Helena, Arkansas, over the Missouri and North Arkansas, the gap from Seligman to Joplin to be filled by an extension, the map of which has already been made. The contract for the extension from Leslie to Pangburn was let last week and the construction work will commence at once. The entrance to New Orleans is to be made by the Illinois Central.

MONEY ALL SUBSCRIBED

Sufficient funds for the general improvements contemplated at the water works reservoir have been subscribed and the money all paid in. These improvements will cost several hundred dollars and will put the reservoir in first class condition.

NEW $10,000 OPERA HOUSE

Plans for the new $10,000 opera house to be erected in Eureka Springs by the Southwest Amusement Construction Co., have been completed. At a meeting of the officers and directors Monday night it was decided to offer $4,000 of the stock to the public.

The plans are for an up-to-date theatre building and one that will be a credit to Eureka Springs. Manager Weslow, who understands every detail of the theatre business has seen to it that the plans were drawn that will insure a strictly modern play house in every respect.

CONTRACT HAS BEEN LET

Burk & Joseph, railroad contractors of St. Louis, have been awarded the contract on the extension of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railway from Leslie. Work will be commenced at an early date.

$1,500 FOR EXTENSION

FOR WATER MAINS

The council at its regular meeting Monday night voted $1,500 for the extension of the water mains from the standpipe to New Town. Work will begin immediately on the enterprise.

SHIPPING CHRISTMAS TREE

Several large shipments of Christmas trees have been sent out to different parts of the country from Carroll county this week. The Ozark pines are in demand for Christmas trees and several more large shipments will be made before the holidays.

THE BOYS GETTING BETTER

Police Judge Betten showed by his monthly report that only $52.70 was collected from fines and penalties during the month of November. The boys evidently were on their good behavior last month. During the month of October the police judge turned in to the general funds the sum of $219.80 from fines and penalties.

TO RAISE FINE POULTRY

Dr. J. Martin, a noted poultry raiser, of Wichita, Kansas, has purchased the T. R. Gault farm of 160 acres on Kings river, and will convert it into one of the biggest poultry farms in North Arkansas. Dr. Martin enjoys a national reputation as a breeder of fine poultry. He was one of the judges of poultry exhibits at the St. Louis world's fair. His Arkansas farm will be stocked with his finest breeds from his Kansas farm.

SHIPMENT OF CATTLE

G. H. Oliver one of the big land holders and stock raisers ten miles southwest of Eureka Springs, shipped out of here $2,290 worth of cattle to the Kansas City market last Saturday. Mr. Oliver belongs to that class of men who are making the Ozarks yield good returns in stock raising and farming. He is a most pleasant gentleman and a man of wide information on every branch of industry pertaining to this section of the state. He called on the Flashlight editors and congratulated them on the improved condition of the paper.

EUREKA SPRINGS' NEW

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Eureka Springs is at last to have a national bank.

The Commercial bank of this city is now undergoing the transformation from a state institution to a national banking institution. The Commercial bank had a paid up capital of $25,000 and it was necessary to increase the stock to $50,000 before the institution could become a national bank.

The remaining $25,000 necessary for nationalizing was gobbled up in a hurry and quite a number of those who wanted stock were disappointed in not securing it.

The new national bank notes bearing the names of President Reagan and Cashier McCroly will be circulated all over the nation and thus advertise our great health resort in a new and unique way.

Who's Who and What's What in Carroll County.

THE well known young military gentleman whose likeness appears herewith is Captain H. H. Porch, of the Arkansas State Guards.

The captain is yet a young man having just rounded out a quarter of a century of existence. He came with his parents from Tennessee, his native state, in 1893 and received the greater part of his education in the public schools of Eureka Springs. In 1897-98 he attended the Military Institute at Memphis.

His military spirit was aroused when the Maine was blown up in the harbor of Havana and he offered his services to his country. He joined Co. K. of the 2nd Arkansas Vol. Infantry at Little Rock in 1898 which was drilled at Camp Thomas, Chicamaugua, and latter at Anniston, Ala. His regiment never saw active service and was mustered out in February 1899.

The Boer war was raging in South Africa at this time and young Porch determined to see some active service on the field of battle.

He accordingly went to New Orleans and from there shipped to Cape Town, South Africa.

He landed in that city January 12, 1900 and enlisted in Maj. Orpen's Light Horse Cavalry of the English army. From Cape Town the boys went to Orange river and began active campaign against the Boers.

Orpen's cavalry was turned over to General Kitchner's command at Brack river. General Kitchner picked out 1,100 men to advance on the Boers at Prieski and young Porch was one of that number.

Prieski was 55 miles away and the march was over hills and ravines and before the objective point was reached 370 horses of the command perished on the way. The advance guard routed the Boers at Prieski and never lost a man.

From there they continued the march northwest to Koegas Point where they guarded the crossing of the Orange river. Out of Kitchner's command 30 men were chosen to guard the crossing. The Eureka Springs soldier was one of this picked number. Seven out of the 30 were killed. Here the boys had plenty of fighting.

In fact it was a roar of light artillery from dawn to sunset. At Kies the English captured 300 wagons, 12,000 sheep and killed Commandant Herman of the Boer army.

From Kies they marched upon Uppington 40 miles north and began a long, dreary march of 280 miles across Kolla bora desert. Three of the soldiers went crazy from a burning thirst on the desert. The Boers were forced off the map in 1900 and peace declared. Young Porch left the battle fields to again pursue the paths of peace.

He, with many other discharged soldiers had a good time in London at the expense of the British government for a week.

Then he returned home rich in the experience of real warfare in a foreign land.

He is now the popular captain of Co. D. of the State Guards and takes especial interest in all military affairs. He is a most pleasant gentleman and counts his friends to the extent of his acquaintances.

State Rifle Range Located on Kings River Near Grand View

An ideal rifle range has been located in Carroll county to be used as one of the permanent encampment grounds for the annual encampments of the Arkansas National Guards.

Col. C. D. James and Captain Homer Porch of Company H., have spent considerable time choosing the site for the rifle range, and have selected a tract of land that could not be excelled for that purpose.

The location of the range is on the banks of Kings river, seven miles from Eureka Springs, near Grand View. The tract comprises forty acres, located on the Taggart farm, and the lease calls for a term of five years.

A regimental or battalion encampment is to be held here every year. The ground lies splendidly for an encampment ground. Plenty of space that is required for drill and camp were secured and the ground will permit of the most extensive military movements being executed.

From four to twelve hundred members of the National Guard will use these grounds each year and the selection of the site was made with a special reference as to their utility as a rifle range. More attention is being given to marksmanship in the national guard now than ever before and the range has become one of the essential needs of an encampment grounds.

DECISION FAVORS BARBEE

The supreme court has handed down a decision reversing the finding of the lower court in the case of E. L. Barbee, charged with murder. Barbee was ably defended by attorneys F. G. Mitchell and Troy Pace, of this city, who are much pleased at the decision of the supreme court in reversing the case and granting a new trial. In the first trial Barbee was convicted and given a fourteen year's sentence.

RUTH REBEKAH LODGE

ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Ruth Rebekah Lodge of Eureka Springs elected the following corps of officers for the ensuing term at the last regular meeting Monday night:

Mrs. Dudley, N. G.;
Mrs. Phillis, V. G.
Mrs. Owens, Sec.;
Mrs. Bridgeford, Treas.;
Trustees: Z. P. Freeman, Mr. Fallis, Mrs. Ivey.

THE FRUITMAN'S PARADISE

C. R. Burnett who lives six miles northeast of Eureka Springs brought to the Flashlight a sample of the fine Ben Davis apples he raised in his orchard this year. Mr. Burnett had an orchard of seven acres and from his trees gathered 400 bushels of apples. These he is marketing for 75 cents per bushel, thus realizing $300 off of seven acres of ground. When the Ozark farmer wakes up to the great possibilities of fruit farming there will be something doing in these grand old hills. In fact here is the fruitman's paradise.

RILEY FOSTER CASE

BEFORE GRAND JURY

The case of Riley Foster pending in the Justice court before C. M. Swope, charged with carnal abuse of a female child, Elma Mahan was dismissed by the Prosecuting Attorney, Wade H. James, on account of the absence of the prosecuting witness. The witnesses have all been subpoenaed to appear before the next grand jury where the matter will be thoroughly investigated. Carroll county has had enough of this kind of crime and the prosecuting attorney is determined to stamp out this nefarious practice.

EUREKA SPRINGS

BAR ASSOCIATION

The Eureka Springs Bar Association met at the office of the secretary, Wade H. James, last Saturday for the purpose of electing a new executive committee, vice A. M. Crump and H. W. Platt removed from the state. Hon. Troy Pace and Col. Chas. D. James were duly elected in their stead.

In addition to the above proceedings Col. J. Crump, of Harrison, and Hon. Troy Pace were received as full fledged members of the association.

This association will meet again next June at the Basin Park Hotel when the second annual banquet of the association will be held.

PARENTS FIGHT FOR THE CHILD

The Mother Makes Sensational Flight
After Abducting Little Daughter and is Making Hot Fight to Keep Child.

The readers of the Flashlight will recall an account of the sensational abduction of little Louise Blakeney by her mother, Mrs. E. S. Blakeney, some five weeks ago.

The little girl was twice abducted by her mother. The first time she secured possession of her child was marked with many sensational incidents. At the time a divorce was granted to Mrs. Blakeney, the child was awarded to the father who lives at McCloud, Oklahoma.

During the first effort to get away with her little daughter the mother locked herself in a Pullman closet and threatened her pursues with a revolver. She yielded to the authorities and gave the child back to its guardian.

Her desire to get possession of Little Louise again steeled her breast for another attempt to kidnap the child and her efforts were rewarded with success.

She took the child from the home of its guardian and made a hasty retreat for Little Rock. From there she went to Newport thence to Bergman and later to Harrison. From Harrison she hastened to her home in Eureka Springs.

The father has instituted habeas corpus in the court of chancery at Fayetteville, Ark. The case will be tried next Monday. James & Fuller will represent Mrs. Blakeney. The case will be a hard fought legal battle.

CHANGE IN TRAIN SERVICE

A change in the train service of the M. & N. A. Ry., went into effect Saturday. Trains No. 14 leaving Eureka Springs at 4:35 a. m. for Seligman and points South on the Frisco and No. 5, arriving at Eureka Springs from Seligman at 7:15 a. m. after connecting with Frisco train No. 5 from St. Louis, are annulled. Passengers for points south on the Frisco will leave Eureka Springs at 8:25 a. m. and 5:05 p. m. Passengers arriving at Seligman on Frisco train No. 5, will arrive at Eureka Springs on No. 11 at 11:59 a. m.

BAR TO ORGANIZE

Attorneys of the eastern district met at the office of Fancher and Bradfield, at Berryville Saturday and effected a temporary organization, which will be made permanent at a meeting to be held next Tuesday night. J. Polk Fancher was chosen as president and H. N. Pittman, secretary.

25 CARS OF STOCK

Berryville has become quite an extensive shipping point for live stock for the Kansas City and St. Louis markets. During the month of November there were twenty-five cars of stock shipped from that place.

Two new members were initiated into the Elks lodge Wednesday night. Lewis Heneke and C. N. Bartlett were made full fledged Elks. A delicious possum supper was served after the initiation.

A dinner party which was thoroughly enjoyed by a dozen guests, was given by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Petty at their home on Tuesday.

DON'T BE FORMAL WITH YOUR FRIENDS

NEVER be formal with your friends. There is a certain amount of frigidity about the fellow who is always calling every one "Mister."

You feel closer to a fellow who calls you "Frank" "Tom" or "Harry" than if he would address you always in a formal manner.

Of course there are conditions, times and ages to be considered in addressing our acquaintances.

The youth who calls an older person by his Christian name is not only impolite, but it is a sign of bad breeding.

A young lady to address her young men acquaintances in such a familiar way would be considered by polite people very impolite, but to men of nearly the same age, and long business acquaintances, the familiar Christian name sounds brotherly and friendly.

The more good fellowship one puts into his own life and the life of others, the stronger becomes the tie of friendship.

Yes, call your friends, your close business associates, "Frank," "Tom" or "Harry," and closer ties of mutual friendship will exist and you will be apt to have a greater interest in his welfare.

THE Missouri and North Arkansas railroad may have a pretty stiff freight rate but the road can certainly plead "not guilty" to an excuse a Eureka Springs' merchant gave for charging a "stiff" price for a fiddle string. He had to have a big price for the string because the freight rates were so "everlastingly high" over the M. & N. A. R. R., he declared in all seriousness.

THE wise virgins of olden times kept their lamps trimmed and burning, but those of the present generation keep the lights turned low and manages to catch as many suckers, if not more, than did their ancient sisters.

TAKE your Flashlight home and let the woman folks have an opportunity to read it. Our aim is to make the Flashlight a paper for the whole family.

IF YOU WOULD KEEP YOUNG

IF you would be young keep in the sunlight.

Nothing beautiful or sweet grows or ripens in the darkness.

Avoid fear in its varied forms of expressions.

Avoid excesses of all kinds, they are injurious.

The long life must be a temperate, regular life.

Don't live to eat but eat to live.

Many of our ills are due to overeating, to eating the wrong thing and to irregular eating.

Don't allow yourself to think on your birthday that you are a year older, and so much nearer the end.

Never look on the dark side; take the sunny view of everything.

A sunny thought will drive away the shadows.

Be a child; live simply and naturally and keep clear of entangling alliances and complications of all kinds.

Cultivate the spirit of contentment; all discontent and dissatisfaction bring age furrows prematurely to the face.

ROCKEFELLER'S INCOME

ONE million dollars is estimated to be John D. Rockefeller's weekly income. This means an income of $157,140 every day.

He goes to bed at 10 p. m. and gets up the next morning at 6 $50,000 richer than he was when he retired for the night.

If he had stacks of five-dollar bills and would hand them out as fast as they could be snatched from his hands, he could not give away his income.

He could go off on a week's pleasure trip and find upon his return that his income for that period was large enough to cover the fortunes of several of the wealthiest men in Carroll county.

What wealth! It makes a fellow dizzy to think of it.

You will say, "How fortunate is Rockefeller."

Right here you make a mistake.

He enjoys less than the clerk whose income is $10 per week or the farm hand who only gets $15 per month and board.

He can't eat anything but soda crackers softened with milk.

He is a nervous wreck and his rest at night is disturbed by "frenzied finance" dreams.

John D. Rockefeller is not happy and in a few short years he will relinquish all his wealth and on that day will meet on equal footing the tramp at the democratic threshold of the grave.

He is neglecting the greatest opportunity ever given to man, to accomplish great works and good deeds.

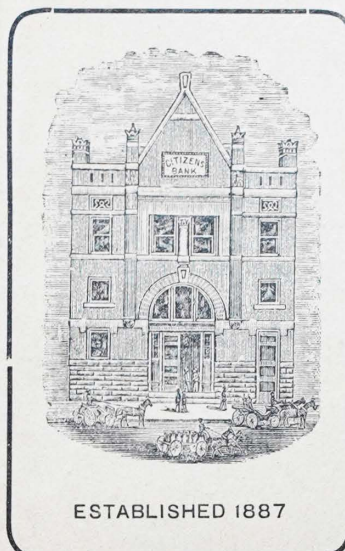

He has endowed a university for the sons of wealthy persons, given to great churches in the large cities, but no orphan asylums have been founded by him, nor no struggling charitable institutions have been helped by his wealth.

He has one object in life and that is to be director of every branch of industry in the world, and to be known as the richest man this old world has ever known, and that ambition has been realized, even though the poor widow in her hut as she burns the midnight oil in sitting up with a sick child is contributing to John's coffers.

He together with the Goulds, J. P. Morgan and W. A. Clark, could stop the wheels of industry from one end of this continent to the other, in one day.

Yet all these men of untold millions can get no more out of life than the ordinary successful business or professional man who earns enough to keep himself and family and a little more.

Contentment, health and a moderate degree of success are more to be envied than the millions of the Rockefellers, the Morgans and the Clarks.

THE TWO MACKS FIND A LOST BOY

THE two Macks, Cashier McCrory and Otis McGinnis gave vent to their thankful hearts by indulging in a hunt on Thanksgiving day and had an amusing experience that furnished them some little concern and lots of amusement.

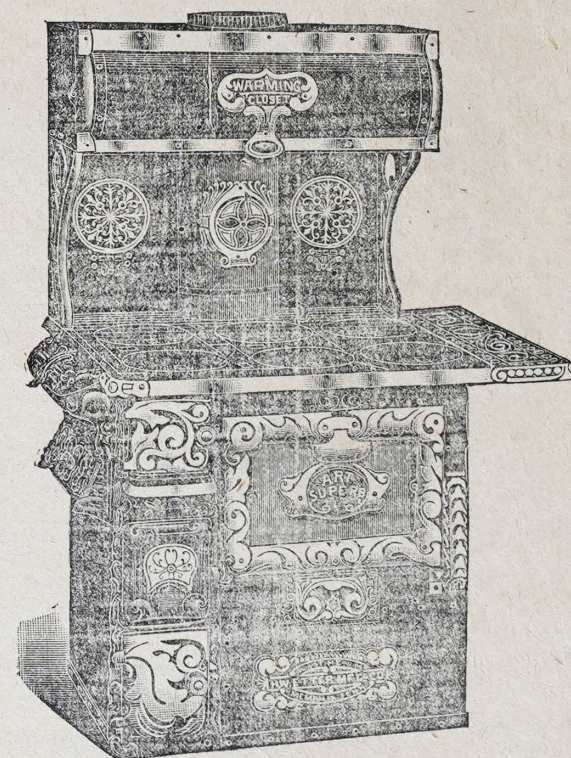

They bagged six rabbits, a half dozen quails and scared the saw dust out of some wood mice. While congratulating themselves upon their good luck they heard a frightened scream away upon the bluffs. "A panther by doggies" said Otis. "No that is the scream of a child" said McCrory while he listened attentively with one hand behind his ear. The scream then became a wail and McCrory ventured a suggestion that some farmer was giving his young hopeful an old fashioned barn shed trouncing.

"I'm going up there and see what all that racket is about. That child is in great distress" said Otis.

McCrory who has studied the safe side of every proposition during his banking experience remonstrated with his fellow sportsman against getting mixed up in family trouble but Otis was on a hunting expedition and would not listen to Mack's advice. Otis put a loaded cartridge in his gun and began to climb the hill. He was well versed in old time panther stories and had a creeping fear that a great big "panther" would leap out of a clump of bushes and land on him. McCrory when he found he couldn't dissuade Otis from "hunting up trouble" determined to see him through with the deal and accompanied him up the hill. The scream became more piercing and agonizing and the boys hurried on to the scenes of the noise. At last a little bare headed youth was espied in a clump of bushes jumping up and down and yelling like one possessed. The frightened youth told his story between sobs. He was the child of Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith and had wandered beyond his little world and was completely lost. The two Macks took the lost boy home, a distance of about two miles and returned to the home of Mr. Munger where the farmer's good wife had prepared an elegant Thanksgiving meal for the hunters.

GOT A BARREL OF EUREKA SPRINGS WATER
25 YEARS AGO

WILL Haven of Freemont, Nebraska, was here recently and told an interesting story about a barrel of Eureka Springs water. Twenty five years ago his mother came to the Springs for her health. There was no railroad in those days near this locality and his mother made the entire trip from Polk Co. Mo., to the Springs in a covered wagon. She was determined to take home a supply of the water and after considering the best way to transport the same concluded to secure a barrel and fill it with the health giving waters. After a diligent search she found a forty gallon barrel and after filling it with spring water sealed it up and took it to her Missouri home. She has used very sparingly of her supply and after 25 years since the barrel was filled has a gallon or two left of the water that seems to be as fresh and wholesome as it was the day it flowed from the spring.

In 25 years she has only used on an average of a gallon and a half of that water per year. She has a years supply on hands yet and when that gives out her son says she will have another barrel shipped to her. One more barrel will no doubt last the lady the rest of her life.

WILL BE TOUGH ON THE EDITORS

"COMMENCING the first of January this will be the program:

"Every body walks but father,
He rides around all day,
Big Mogul on the railroad,
He don't have to pay.
Little Johnnie walking;
Also brother Bill,
So is the whole d—family,
Since Hepburn passed his bill."

Mr. C. H. Rohrer, the genial District Passenger Agent of the Missouri Pacific's White River Division, hands the Flashlight editors the spasm appearing above which looks like he is taking a fiendish delight in rubbing it in. Mr. Rohrer denies the authorship of the verse but he says: "I knew you would enjoyed it, so you have it for what it's worth."

It will either be walk, stay at home or go down in our jeans and dig up car fare for the newspaper fraternity after the first of January. This is the ultimatum of the railroads and no more passes or mileage books are to be doled out to the boys in exchange for advertising. Everyone who rides on the plush seats will have to cough up the price of his ticket.

Shucks, what's the difference? Let 'em keep their old passes. The Ozark editors have a mighty fine place to stay if they do have to stay at home. But it'll be pretty tough on some of the poor critters who would like to come down and see a real beauty spot once in a while.

Of the newspaper profession in Carroll county S. H. Doxey, of the North Arkansas Star of Berryville, will have the rest of the boys bested "way yander" when it comes to walking. His pedal extremities have a reach that would easily cover three ties at a step. The rest of us couldn't keep in hailing distance.

*Flashlight
Snap Shots*

Last week a Carroll county paper contained the following advertisement: "Wanted—a horse to do the work of a country doctor." The horse ought to have plenty of good horse sense to attend to the ills of a whole community.

In one of Eureka Springs' dry goods stores a clerk say it is easy to tell a married woman from a single lady when they come to trade. The girl goes for the silks and ribbons while the other puts for the bargains and remnants.

A Carroll county young couple was recently married and the bride invited an old aunt to attend the wedding. The wedding invitations were neatly printed and on one corner bore the inscription: "Children not expected." After scanning it closely over her spectacles the old lady exclaimed: "That's all right, but they'll have 'em all the same."

A Green Forest man who was in Joplin one day last week stopped at one of the hotels for supper, when by chance there was no menu cards on the table. "I have deviled kidneys, calves brains and pigs feet," said the waiter. "What do I care," replied the hungry Green Forest citizen, "tell your troubles to a doctor, I came here to eat."

At a wedding over in Benton county this week the groom fainted during the ceremony. With such a display of weakness and fear at the start we pity his condition when the bride has had him in charge for a few months.

A Eureka Springs couple, who rumor says are engaged, were crossing Spring street one day this week when her affianced suggested that she held her skirts a little too high on a muddy crossing. "Well, haven't I a perfect right," she retorted. "Indeed you have" replied the mean man, "and from where I stood I could see nothing wrong with the left."

It is told that in a certain women's club not far from Eureka Springs, there was registered a vote aggregating twenty-five when there were only fourteen members present. No wonder the great political parties are chummy about granting the ballot to women.

The Flashlight snap shot editor was asked for information this week which nearly stumped us. A lady writes to know what exercise a slender woman should take to give her the popular broad-shoulder effect. Walk briskly to the nearest dry goods store and secure the necessary filling.

Berryville girls like to be considered up-to-date. A young lady who is contemplating a visit to a distant city has been "getting up" on the new dances in anticipation of the event. She explained the dance to her girl friends: "The court pose when properly done brings the body almost in sitting posture, with the right knee doubled under as a support and the left leg perfectly straight and thrust forward." Large, portly citizens with scant wind, doing this stunt slowly and with stateliness would be a sight worth seeing.

Out near Beaver there is a young lady who has a sweetheart who is such a poor writer that when she received a note from him one day this week she was unable to make out whether it was an invitation to a dance or a proposal of marriage. She simply "accepted with pleasure" and is now awaiting results.

A Berryville grocer sold some buckwheat flour for washing powder the other day and the woman who took it home and used it brought it back the next day mad as a wet hen. She said the blamed stuff "gaumed up her clothes," and demanded her money back.

Since some nifty burglars have been doing some lively work over in Benton county, one of the newspapers of that county says: "We have our shooting stick loaded with slugs to protect the quoin box. We're taking no chances."

Recently a Eureka Springs young lady received a proposal of marriage by letter and was requested to send her answer by wire. On finding that ten words cost no more than one she wrote "yes" ten times.

Social Events of the Week

The young ladies of the Chafing Dish Club were the guests of Miss Lessie West on Thanksgiving night and were royally entertained. A sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner was served and following the dinner an evening of genuine enjoyment was spent by the club. An "observing" contest was one of the features of the evening's entertainment in which Misses Laura Willis and Ida Volner were the successful contestants, each making the same score. In deciding the tie Miss Willis was the winner. Mother Goose rhymes of their nursery days were recited and the evening was all too quickly passed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baldridge were hosts at a most delightful dinner party at their home on Thanksgiving day, at which a number of friends were served with a most excellent six o'clock dinner. A pleasant evening was spent in games following the dinner. The host and hostess were ably assisted in entertaining by their daughter, Miss Victoria Lough.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miller were

Any Paint Man

will tell you that no paint is any better than the oil that's mixed into it—not with it, but more than that—into it. By that he means that the paint will not stay on the surface if it's applied any longer than the oil in it holds out. "Dead oil—dead paint." The dearest way to get the dearest paint, because the oil in it can't help but be the dearest, is to get paint that's "ready mixed." "Ready mixed" is another way of saying "Already used up," because the oil in the ready mixed paint was, of course, put there the day the paint was canned. When that was no body can say. And all the time the can was in the factory, and in the freight car, and on the dealer's shelves, the lead—and, possibly, zinc, mixture, if it's a well mixed paint—was eating the life out of the oil. It's wine, and not paint that improves with age. And properly to mix lead and zinc, turpentine and all the other ingredients, so as to be sure of the freshness and strength of your linseed oil, is too great a task for the householder—and even for the up-to-date painter. What to do then? Get a paint that is in a condensed form—with all the right things ground into it by machinery, but with the pure raw linseed oil left out for you to put in. That paint is HAM-MAR paint—the paint you're sure of—the paint that is all paint. The only paint that is guaranteed to wear for five years. Come in and talk it over before you paint. You not only get the best paint but save at least 25% on your paint bill.

the hosts at a most pleasant little family dinner party on Thanksgiving day. Members of the immediate family were present and enjoyed a splendid course dinner.

A masquerade party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. White last Thursday night at which a large party of friends enjoyed an evening of fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Mearns entertained a small party of friends at their home on Thanksgiving day. A most sumptuous dinner was served.

Mrs. J. D. Jordan served a most tempting dinner on Thanksgiving day complimentary to her son John Jordan. Six of his young men friends were the guests.

A BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

November 27, 1906, will be remembered with pleasure by the friends and relatives of Mrs. Edna Joslin, who met her at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Baker, in honor of the sixty-ninth anniversary of her birth.

To many of her friends it was a double pleasure as it was their first opportunity of greeting her since her recent return from Salubria, Idaho, where she resided for a number of years with her two daughters.

Mrs. Joslin, or "grandma," as she was lovingly called by a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren present; with seven ladies, all near three score years, or older, formed the circle of "guests of honor." Though time has stolen the roses from their cheeks and threads of silver glisten in their hair, their happy faces attested that life still holds joys for each of them.

As the day waned, with the benediction of prayer over all, the guests departed feeling that life was brighter because of another day well spent.

May the dear old grandmother be spared to spend many more birth-days with friends and loved ones; and as the months and years circle away may her gentle Christian influence reach and brighten the lives of those by whom she is surrounded as it has in bygone years.

A FRIEND.

Miss Lydia Hamilton most pleasantly entertained the Progressive

Card Club at her home on Saturday afternoon. Several hours were happily spent with cards and following the games refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. One of the features of the afternoon's entertainment was several splendid selections recited by Miss Savage, which added pleasure to the occasion.

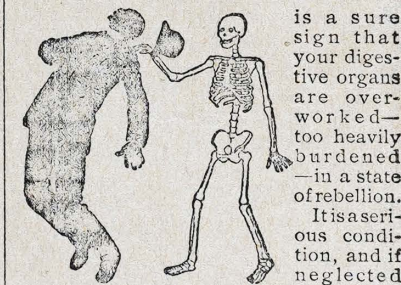

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Cunane were hosts at a pleasant little dinner party Sunday afternoon at which a few friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Hawley entertained a party of friends at a box party on Friday evening at the performance of "The Rustlers."

The Elite Whist Club were most charmingly entertained last Friday night at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pendergrass. Some exciting games marked the evening's play and the honors were carried off by Mrs. Sawdon and Mrs. F. A. Pickard. Light refreshments were served following the games.

ALL EXPECTED TO PAY

THE Flashlight has no complimentary list. Every one, priest or king receiving a copy of the Flashlight is expected to pay for it. It cost just 75 cents to mail 52 copies—a year's subscription—to a subscriber. In other words the publishers of an all home print paper the size of the Flashlight goes down in their pockets and pays 75 cents to every one of his subscribers.

So you see it is necessary for each and every subscriber to pay his dollar to the publishers some time during the year.

Paper bills, labor, rent, and many other items of expense go to increasing the expense of publishing a paper. The subscription price does not pay but a very small part of the expense of sending a newspaper to its readers.

Get the habit of paying your subscription the same as you do your grocery bill or your taxes. Its a good habit and a publisher never forgets the subscriber who remembers his newspaper subscription.

Miss Maud McLain of Springfield, Missouri, is visiting her friend, Miss Fanny West. Miss McLain is a frequent visitor in our city and we are all glad when she comes.

An entertainment was given last Thursday night, at the Court House for the benefit of the Library fund. We can soon boast of a public library, and our people honor and praise the noble, Christian women who are giving us this boon. The benefit will be greater and our hearts rejoice more than if the library was the gift of the philanthropist? Andrew Carnegie.

Eight new buildings are in course of construction. Several strangers have recently moved here and bought homes. Berryville is improving rapidly, and we will soon have the much talked about 1000 population.

George L. Sands of St. Louis, vice president of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railroad Company, who was in Little Rock on last Saturday in attendance at a meeting of the stockholders and directors' meetings of the Southeastern Railroad Company, of which he is president, said to a Gazette reporter that the reason the Missouri and North Arkansas will not build through Little Rock is because it desires to save distance in its connections with the gulf. "The Missouri and North Arkansas is an independent proposition," said Mr. Sands, "and is not connected in any way with either of the trunk lines that now enter Little Rock. In order to make our property of any value we have got to make ourselves a link in a through line that even our enemies may find to their advantage to use. The gulf coast and northwest traffic is a big item to day, and no one can even imagine what it will amount to with the completion of the Panama canal. Therefore, every mile that can be saved on a through line from the gulf to the Northwest is important. "If we had undertaken to reach the gulf through Little Rock it would have increased the distance to our objective point probably thirty miles. It would have put us at Little Rock in the hands of railroads now entering this city, neither of which is friendly to our enterprise." Asked if there was any probability of the Missouri and North Arkansas ever building even a branch to Little Rock, Mr. Sands said: "What we have in hand to day so thoroughly occupies us that it is hardly likely that we will undertake to get to Little Rock, at least not until after the work we now have in hand is finished. Mr. Sands also pointed out that a line from Little Rock to the North would be of great benefit to that city. "It is virtually a virgin country," he said, "and while it has been settled a long time it's never been developed, and has capabilities beyond any other portion of Arkansas today. I believe it is the best small general farming territory that was ever known, and I believe not another section of the United States has the quantity and quality of virgin hardwood timber. "It is entirely a Little Rock territory, and the disposition of the people of the entire section—even farther west than Harrison—is to do business with Little Rock." As to the route the Missouri and North Arkansas will take from the Iron Mountain track to Helena, Mr. Sands said that it had not been definitely settled where the road would cross the Iron Mountain, and that the line east of the Iron Mountain will depend in great measure upon the crossing point. * * * The editor of the Alpena Searchlight seems to be willing to give up his time piece and his educational prospects for a "fresh cow and calf" as he advertises to swap a gold watch and a scholarship for a cow and calf. We see where the editor of the Searchlight is wise, very wise. * * * The Alpena Searchlight doesn't like for striking non deplames for its correspondents. There is "Jingle Bell," "Sniff and Tiff" and the "Twin Sister." Now if he just had "Cody Sinklefritz from Pennsylvucky," the list would be complete. * * * The Gazette proposes raising a fund of several thousand dollars and giving it to the first road that builds from Little Rock north and connects with the Missouri and North Arkansas, and heads the list with a subscription of $500. Other citizens of that city also make liberal subscriptions. * * * We heard on the street the other day of a man who claimed he was too poor to take his home paper, but all the same he read a notice in one of our county paper, telling how to prevent a horse from slobbering, and sent $1.50 for receipt. When the $1.50 worth of information came it said: "Teach your horse how to spit."—Green Forest Tribune. * * * Editor Cooper evidently is keeping an eye on how the boys carry their money. Here is his observations on that line: "Men have various ways of carrying their money. Grocers, butchers and millers carry it in a wad. Bankers in clean bills, laid full length in a pocket book. Brokers only fold the bill once, doubling the money as it were. The young business man carries it in his vest pocket. Farmers and drovers in their inside pockets, whether it be $50 or 15 cents. Printers usually carry their money in other people's pockets." * * * Quite an excitement was created in town Saturday evening by the report that Miss Cleetie Neff was dying. She had gone in the bath room to take a bath and was overcome by gas from the gasoline heater. Before becoming unconscious she screamed, which was heard by her mother who was sick in bed in an adjoining room. Mrs. Neff went immediately to aid her daughter but her progress was barred by the door being locked on the inside. She then attracted the attention of a neighbor who effected an entrance through a window and opened the door. Miss Cleetie was unconscious when found and remained so for more than an hour. After about two hours she seemed to be as well as usual.—Berryville Star. * * * This office was favored with a call Tuesday from E. M. Bare and Mr. Malone of Eureka Springs. Bare had his famous laugh and some good jokes along with him. Mr. Malone is the editor who is resurrecting the Flashlight.—Carroll Progress.

The Pain Family

You know them; they are numerous, and make their presence felt everywhere. The names of the family are Headache, Toothache, Earache, Backache, Stomach ache, Neuralgia, etc. They are sentinels that warn you of any derangement of your system. When the brain nerves become exhausted or irritated, Headache makes you miserable; if the stomach nerves are weak, indigestion results, and you double up with pain, and if the more prominent nerves are affected, Neuralgia simply makes life unendurable. The way to stop pain is to soothe and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this. The whole Pain family yield to their influence. Harmless if taken as directed.

"I find Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills an excellent remedy for overcoming headache, neuralgia and distressing pains of all sorts. I have used them for the past seven years in this capacity with the best of results."

MRS. JOE MERRILL, Peru, Ind.
Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

BUSINESS TALKS

Little Talks With the Business Men of Eureka Springs Who are in in the Progrssive Line of Business Builders.

It's the constant dropping water
That wears away the hardest stone.
It's the constant gnaw of Towser
That masticates the toughest bone.
It's the constant wooing lover.
That carries off the blushing maid.
It's the constant advertiser
That gets the biggest trade.

This department is set aside exclusively for the benefit of the Flashlight advertisers.

Progressive merchants are the ones that help a town. Every time they advertise their wares they help spread the fame of our city as a good town in which to trade. If you are interested in the city's growth stand by the man who helps the town. Again the liberal advertiser is a liberal man to do business with.

John Wanamaker the great Philadelphia merchant said: "the business man who is not afraid of competition is the one who advertises."

Did you ever stop to consider the various ways and the peculiar manner business men adopt to advertise their goods?

Just glance over the Flashlight and see how uniquely and catchy the different ads appear on the printed page.

The Citizens bank has a catchy expression, "Safety, absolute privacy and good service."

The man who wrote that ad knew what the public demanded of a bank and put it strong enough to impress one from the start. And the best of all is the bank lives up to its advertisement.

* * *

On the opposite page is that other splendid and solid financial institution, the Commercial bank.
A unique cut of a little home saver adorns this ad. The Commercial bank lays great emphasis on its savings department and holds out the inducement of 4 per cent on the savings. To drop ones savings in the Commercial bank is as safe as if they were rolled into the United States treasury.

The Fuller Furniture Co.
makes a bid for trade on the Superb steel range. Just read what Harvey Fuller, the genial manager, says about his range.

Of course you noticed that artistic ad of McGinnis and Son?

* * *

Perkins Bros., the big department store, are liberal advertisers. This well known firm has a trade mark that they strive every day to make good. It is:
"Eureka Springs' best store."
Again the firm throws in a closing clinch in these words: "Merchandise of Quality."

Charley Blair's Hardware store offers some excellent bargains to the public. The boys say that one always gets his money's worth at Blairs. He carries an excellent stock of goods and sells as cheap as the cheapest and knows how to treat the public.

Blair, the abstract and real estate man, is a good advertiser.
He is also a good tooter for Eureka Springs. He has just opened a branch office in Kansas City and will do business on a larger scale than ever. He enjoys the confidence of the trading public and herein lies the secret of the success of every real estate man.

O. M. Clark, is a great believer in printer's ink and offers some rare bargains in real estate.
Clark doesn't believe in "stretching the blanket" in a trade and every statement he makes about a piece of property is facts true as the gospel. His absolute honesty in dealing with his fellow man coupled with his uniform courtesy has made him the trusted friend of every citizen of Eureka Springs.

Just look at this page of business and professional cards. We will have something to say about each advertiser each month.

This page was formerly given up to patent medicine ads which we have discontinued as the contracts expired. We believe there is more efficacy in one prescription of a Eureka Springs doctor than all the patent medicines in the world.

The Carroll Progress contains this nice little essay on boys: "Not every boy can be a rich or a great man, but every boy can be a gentleman. A boy with gentlemanly manners, who is trusty and honest does his very best every day, will gain the attention and confidence of men and will be given paying and responsible positions as soon as he is old enough to fill them.
Boys like to have fun and a good time. It is right they should.
They never will be boys but once,
but to have fun is not altogether what they are made for. Boys are of value chiefly to make men, good for something in the world. Character like a house, must have the right kind of a foundation. The foundation stones of a good character are reverence for God, respect and obedience to parents, deference for old people.
