BUSINESS TALKS

Speaking of advertising, of judicious advertising, everybody makes mistakes, but only fools make the same mistake twice.
Were you caught by the last injudicious advertising scheme? Don't do it again. Invest your money in space in the Flashlight. Results are certain. Its no skin game, or grafting or charity.

The best for the money. That's what they all say. And you will join in the chorus if you will give us a chance to prove the "pulling power" of a well written advertisement placed in the Flashlight.
What many recommend, more should take head of. The more successful merchants of Eureka Springs will recommend the Flashlight as the medium for the exploiting of your wares. Note what merchants take space every week in this paper. Is that recommendation enough to convince you that it pays? Because you tried advertising once and saw no immediate results, does not warrant you in saying that advertising does not pay. It takes persistent work to get results. Others here in Eureka Springs have succeeded by advertising, why shouldn't you?

If you want to advertise, but haven't the time to give to it, a Flashlight man will write the ads for you, if you will indicate the line along which you desire them written.

The Flashlight furnishes the circulation, you furnish the advertising, and there is no question about results. It cannot help but pay. Now is the time to begin to increase your advertising. Others are doing it already.

OUT OF HARMONY

To be out of harmony with the world, the times, or with one's self, is a misfortune.

The writer chanced to meet a man on the street one evening not long since, a most estimable young man, too, and was struck with the lack of harmony in his make up.
He was well dressed as far as cost goes, but he was not well dressed as far as taste and harmony go.
For instance, he had on tan oxfords and black silk hosiery; black trousers and a light coat, white waistcoat and a red tie. He had spent his money, but he was out of harmony with himself, with good taste, with nature.

The next day the writer chanced to walk along the street for a block in the rear of a good woman, a matron, perhaps 35 years of age.
Her hat was in good taste, quite smart. She had on an immaculate hand embroidered shirtwaist.
Being a woman of good form and graceful carriage she would naturally have attracted the attention of a man or a woman one hundred feet away. But she was sadly out of harmony in her make up. She wore a black skirt, walking length, and a white skirt fell an inch below. She wore high heel shoes that were badly run over. Thus, while miladi was artistically dressed from crown to waist-line, from the waist to her heels the effect was out of harmony, giving her what those inclined to indulge in slang term "sloppy." And thus she was out of harmony with herself.

In other words, as Mrs. Osborn, the fashion critic of the Delineator, would say, she failed in the ensemble, yet I hardly agree with her that there is not one in fifty women but what do—especially here in Eureka Springs.

"Yes, she's a beautiful young girl," I heard a matron say recently, "but, oh, how I would like to tell her not to dress so loud and unbecoming."

And as it is in dress, so it is in other material things. Yonder is a harmonious farm, everything in good taste, everything precision to a nicety, while in the same neighborhood, there is a homestead with a big woodpile in the front yard, a homestead where confusion and conglomeration prevail.

In the beginning God created everything in harmony. Observe the soft blending of Nature, the trees, the grass, the flowers, the foliage, the landscape, the ocean, the sky, the sunset. The beauty in life is only marred when man or woman interferes with the harmony.

Nature is beautiful, always beautiful, always harmonious.
Every little flake of snow in winter is a perfect crystal, and they fall together as gracefully as if fairies of the air caught waterdrops and made them into artificial flowers to garland the wings of the wind. In nature, all is managed for the best with perfect frugality and just reserve, profuse to none, but bountiful to all; never employing on one thing more than enough, but with exact economy retrenching the superfluous, and adding force to what is principal in everything.

And, too, it is well to be in harmony with one's self within—harmony of soul with the present and the future—harmony of being with life's surroundings. All sensations of pleasure arise from the harmonious action of vibratory forces within, and all pain from the inharmonious action of those same vibratory forces. Are you living the life of harmony and happiness, or of discord and misery? Indeed, to be out of harmony in life, in dress as well as in temperament, in soul as well as in music, means only discord and vexation of spirit.

Harmony within means much; it means happiness and contentment; it means life at its best.

Children in Pain never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. Sold by H. T. Pendergrass.

Ten Years In Bed

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." H. T. Pendergrass.
